“ This is Steve Jesionka, nephew of Nina Sobolewski. I was delayed in getting this tragic news as my wife and I live in California. I am extremely saddened to hear of my Auntie Nina's passing. It is very hard to put into words my feelings, as Auntie Nina is larger than life.

No matter what was happening, you could set your watch by Auntie Nina, as she was completely unflappable. I think out all my relatives, I had the most contact with Auntie Nina and Uncle Stash. I always looked forward to seeing them both, as it was special. Auntie Nina had an electric smile, she lit up the room. She was always so pleasant and warm.

The biggest thing that strikes me about Auntie Nina is style. She was always a snappy and trendy dresser. I remember some of her hats. I often thought she looked like a model.

Uncle Stash, Yvonne, Monique; the hearts of my wife Bernice and I go out to you. With the greatest sympathy and respect to all of you and to Auntie Nina. Love always, Stephen and Bernice.

“ My Ciocia Nina opened her heart and home to me and my mom in 1964, when we came to the US from Poland. She always put family first, was loving, kind and generous, hosting all the holidays through the decades with the best traditional Polish delicacies. Nina and Stanley had the perfect marriage, one that many only dream of. She exemplified true class and elegance. Nina's passing leaves a huge void in the heart of our family. Her spirit shall live on in our hearts and memories.

“ Nina was a very classy Lady, Will always remember the outing to Ground for Sculpture with Yvonne. She was dressed to the nines and with high heels walking in the grounds.

We had a wonderful day and lunch at Rats. I will always hold that memory of her.

She will be missed by all, especially her grand children.

God Bless her and keep her in his Heart.

So very sorry - Yvonne.

Love

Your friend - Terri

“ My Ciocia Nina opened her heart and home to me and my mom in 1964, when we arrived in the US. She always put family first and was generous and caring throughout her life, hosting all the holidays through the decades, with the most delicious traditional Polish delicacies. Nina and her husband, Stanley, had the most amazing, perfect marriage. Their love was what most people dream of, and will continue to live on, even with her passing. I am deeply saddened for our loss of our sweet, kind, generous, classy Nina. May she Rest In Peace, forever in our hearts.

With love and sympathy,

Aldona
