“ I will always remember the sledding days of yester-year, down the long snow and ice corn fields of the farm w/ her sister Doris. She would be crashing in to us kids, to many to mention, cause she couldn't control the sled. that's what I remember of my aunt Alice.

“ So many great memories of Aunt Alice, I could fill pages. But from my younger years I remember my mom (Cindy) bought us kids a cool go-cart for Christmas. She hid it up. the street at Aunt Alice's house. The whole week before x-mas Aunt Alice & mom rode it up & down Sunnymede rd to "" test drive it for safety"". My Dad (Al) told us later on, that the two of them were just having a blast and wouldn't stop driving it !
