

Andrew Ricardo Infante

July 26, 1930 - December 6, 2016

Andrew Ricardo Infante, More of a gentleman, you'll never find. Always a greeting, a special kind. Hands strong and sturdy, building structures to the sky, But still soft and so gentle, when we needed to cry. A great mind self developed, by nights lantern light. “ *My thoughts & prayers go out to Andy's family. He was so kind and always a true gentleman. He was a dear friend to us and will be missed. My fondest memories of Andy are when he'd stop by my parents' deli for a cup of coffee & conversation at the end of the day. He'd lend a hand when my dad would get stuck on a crossword clue or try to stump us with his trivia. Rest In Peace dear friend.

“ Andrew, my life was blessed to grow up across the street from you and your family. There I met my best friend, the brothers I never had and the second set of parents that welcomed me into their home as though I was their own. I will never forget the late night talks around the kitchen table where you would share your kindness, your wisdom and your laughter. You always took the time to make everyone that came into your life feel special. The memory of you will live on in my heart and the hearts of all those you have touched with your gentle caring ways. Love always, Linda

“ Some of my best memories growing up were visiting Uncle Andy and Aunt Lena. Uncle Andy always made me feel loved. He always had wonderful stories of my mom. To me he was George Bailey. It's with such deep sadness that I write this. So often I thought of visiting and life would happen and I wasn't able to. Don't let time go by without seeing the people you love because you may not be able to. Aunt Lena, Pat, Joey and families, my thoughts and prayers are with you. There is one thing I know for sure, if there is a heaven I know Uncle Andy is definitely there now and Maggy was there to greet him.

“ Though we were never privileged to met your father, we had the honor of meeting Patrick and calling him family. If the son is a reflection of the father, there is no doubt that your father gave and received love in bounty. Our heartfelt sorrow for the family.

“ Words and phrases are thrown around in today's society with little regard or understanding for their meaning. Andy knew the power of words. If ever there was a "once-in-a-lifetime" human being, gentleman, and all-around great guy, his name was Andy Infante. He was the epitome of everything a person should strive be and emulate.

“ I sit here trying to think of what to write and all that keeps coming to mind is one word "BLESSED". I feel blessed to have known you, to call you family. To have memories of growing up with you in my life. The unplanned gatherings in the backyard, coffee, cake/cookies and your stories. The best part always were your stories. A man of knowledge and humor. You kept us entranced with all you had to tell. Your kindness was always felt. You will be missed so much. Heaven has gained a story teller. You are retelling, remembering all of your stories with all that have gone on before you. Until we see each other again may God embrace you and may God watch over those still here.

God Bless!!!
