“ My funny memory of my brother Anthony was when he was about 20 and come home from work. A pot of soup or cabbage and cheese or whatever - just a pot of food my Mom had cooking on the stove. He'd lift the cover and say, "what this slop again!" Funnier than that was after the food appraisal he'd run up the stairs to his bedroom and always trip on the top couple steps. I love Anthony so much and miss him daily.

“ *Dear Liz and Family;
We had the honor of meeting Anthony and Liz when Carrie and the boys became our neighbors. Always enjoyed conversing with them about life and the grandchildren. A fine gentleman who will be missed by all who had the privilege of meeting him. Thanks for the memories, Anthony. R.I.P. Jack and Cookie Jones*

“Dear Aunt Liz, Marisa and Carrie, I am so sad to hear of Uncle Anthony's passing. He was a wonderful uncle to me and Esther, always with a big smile and a hug. He was smart and funny, and steadfast in holding to what he thought was right. I will miss him. May he be in a better place.
