“ Me, and my mother Karen share our deepest condolences and remember all of the good times we had with him ever since we stopped seeing him in 2019, even years after he unfortunately passed. Despite having no relation to this kind man, he was the best grandfather I could have ever asked for. I remember every moment I spent with him like it was yesterday despite me not having seen him for sometime until he passed. He was always the sweetest man in the world and was always there for me, even when I was in the scariest place in the world, the dentist.
