“ Joey and family, Our heart felt condolences on the passing of Chet. His smile will remain in my memories of the GOOD ole days at JM field ball games & picnics, Manville Lanes, and gathering with family and friends. He always made the world feel right with his "gusto" for life. Heaven is glowing in his company, John and the all the rest of the special loved one who left us much to early welcomed him with open arms. May all your memories of the special times spent with him sustain the Olshefski family. Chet, R.I.P. and please give mom and Mick a big bear hug from me.....then just 1 more thing, please have a nice cold one for me! Hugs and praying for your family.

“ Dear uncle I will miss your warm bear hugs and will always treasure my memories of you taking me to Philly with you when I was a child. You even drove me to Elizabeth NJ to see my best friend Valerie after she moved away and I missed her so badly. Thank you for all the love you showed me. I send my love for you to heaven because I know that's where you are right now looking down on all of us. Your Niece Diane
