“ Dear Chris, Remembering how we reminisced recently about the endearing nickname 'Jay' that my Dad, your uncle, gave you as a kid and you shared that you saved a card for over 50 years that was written to you in that nickname.
You fully embraced life and had a life well-lived.
Forever in our hearts. Love always, Michelle <3

*I must also add, we were both teachers at Sacred Heart School ,
Manville, NJ,...in our young years....and we had a lot of fun there.
She moved on with her Optician career in time..I stayed in education .
but*

*We always helped each other through all our ups and downs in life.
.even though at times there were YEARS we did not see each other .
We remained close.*

When we met, we picked it all up like we never parted for different life reasons.

*We went for disco dancing lessons, country line dancing
Lessons at the Yellow Rose in Manville....oh myyyyyyy...we had fun.
Chris, when I pass, I hope you are there to greet me in heaven.*
