“ Debra, I got to see you today you are so so pretty, you look so content, so peaceful, you were always pretty to me even when you felt you were at your worst. You told me we were forever, but little did I know forever would be such a short time, now comes tonight the hard part when I have to say goodbye forever. I don't know how I will survive without you baby, I love you Debra, I am hurting so bad, I cannot imagine life without you, I just want to die and be next to you.... then we will be FOREVER!

Keith Zydallis - October 28, 2014 at 03:53 PM

Keith, my heart goes out to you and Debra's family. So , so sorry for your loss. I have felt your pain Keith. I was with someone for 2 and 1/2 years and we planned to marry. A year and a half ago he died in his sleep. Oh the pain. He will be in my heart for the rest of my life. I can be there for you if you ever want to talk. I live in Vermont so you can look me up on facebook if you want to get in touch with me, now or in the future. Grieving is so painful. Again, I'm deeply sorry for your loss.

“ When Debbie and Donna were very young, they lived with their mother and father in the same apartment building I lived in with my sister and parents. The two girls loved my father whose name was Frank. Every day we could hear the girls calling from their window, "Uncle Fank, Uncle Fank". Funny how memories like that stick with you.

“ Debi was a childhood friend in high school. Although we lost contact throughout the years we reconnect through Facebook these past few years. It was nice to hear about her recent engagement and condo purchase with Keith and how happy she was. I remember a lot of laughter with her. God bless you all during this time.
