“ Aunt Dee, I'm devastated that you were taken to the stairway so suddenly; but our calling is never predetermined or with warning. I'm sure you were on a righteous path the please someone somewhere as you always lived to do. My most memorable value of you is also instilled in me through you and my grandmother. You were always a strong matriarch and your image was always that which demanded attention. Your way with words drew the attention of ears that weren't even trying to listen. You were always admirable to me and for that your spirit will live on In my mind. Although I won't see you here in the physical I know you will always be with us in the spiritual. Rest easy my dearest great aunt! Much love and respect for you forever. Xoxo say hello to my severely missed Nanny and favorite Aunt up there! Love you!
