“ My Aunt Doris was always a loving and generous person. She came to my mother-in-law's funeral which was held in the winter. I did not think of bringing a hat to keep me warm. I need not worry for my Aunt Doris was standing behind me and took off her hat and put it on my head. Thanks for this lovely memory.

“ I will never forget my Aunt Doris. She was a no nonsense, outspoken woman and she was a very devoted wife to our Uncle Bob and her family.

“ Dear Susan and family. I just found out today about the passing of your mother. There are no words to make this time easier on any of you but please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. I know only too well the feeling and loss of a parent/loved one as my father passed away June 23rd of 2021. His one year anniversary is coming up in 2 days. I have so many wonderful memories of the time spent with all of you when we all lived in Lost Valley of Manville. The many trips going to the boardwalk, shopping, drive in movies, sleepovers and the fun filled summer days swimming in the backyard pool. Susan, do you remember the time the sides of the pool caved in with us swimming in it and we went sliding across the yard? I can still hear your mother running towards us concerned as we were giggling. I always felt like one of the “girls/sisters”. Your parents always showed such love and affection for one another. How blessed a couple they were to have had such a loving and committed marriage. Role models for all. Although this time is difficult I hope your family is able to reflect and share all the many years of love and the lifetime of memories you all made together. Your mother is now at peace and living her best life in her new heavenly home. I know she will always be soaring above the skies protecting and watching over all you just as she did while here with you. Wishing you all the strength, peace and faith that will help you during this time. ❤️🙏❤️ Eternal rest grant unto to your mother and let her perpetual light shine on forever. Forever in the hearts of your loved ones and continued prayers to all.
