“ Aunt Dottie,
I'll never forget the times we spent at your kitchen table sharing some Scotch, stories and laughs. It felt great and made me proud when you would take me to the VFW - a young sailor (Coastie) in uniform visiting with older veterans.
Give my Dad & Mom a hug for me - say hello to Uncle Moonie and the rest of the klan for me. Someday I hope we can all sit around and share some stories! I love you!
God has gained another Angel :)

“ Dear Dottie, Well, Once again I have to say goodbye to someone I love very much, It seems as if my world keeps getting smaller. Dottie you were there for me durring the hardest time of my life, when I lost my Mom. You stepped in and gave me someone to talk to again, someone to confide in and someone to give me advise. I loved you from the frist day my father brought you hear to meet us. We just clicked. One Polack to another. I thank God he brought you to my family. I only wish it had been sooner. But I will always be grateful for the times we had. Dottie you are a Beautiful Person, both inside and out. I will never forget you. Dottie, You kept telling me I need to take care of my self first. I promise you I will try and remember that always. I will always Love You. Love Bill Titus

Aunt Dottie was and always will be very special to me and my family. She always went out of her way to make us feel special and welcome. Any time we visited the New Jersey, we had a place to stay and a feast to eat. Uncle Stanley (he called me Winston) and her would visit us in Indiana every year and it was an event we looked forward to. At Christmas, there was always a goodie box in the mail with homemade cookies. Easter time it was her coconut Lamb cake. After Mom passed in 1983, I made it a habit to call Aunt Dottie usually every 2 weeks, but always had to call on Sunday night after 10:00 if I wanted to catch her at home. She touched so many lives. I can go on and on.....My world is different now. I miss her already.
