“ Mr. Walinchus was a great part of my life growing up ,being my best friends father. But he was also a big part of many of the youth that were a part of the MYAL coaching football and baseball. He taught us at a young age how to be champions ,win or loose. He had a huge heart always taking local kids fishing or playing games in the yard .He will be missed by so many, but even more by his family . Manville pintos undefeated 2 yrs in a row and Un scored upon. I want to share my greatest condolences with the Walinchus family I love you all ,you were like a second family to me. Thank you for sharing your dad and husband with the youth of Manville. You will not be forgotten Mr. Walinchus thank you for the best years of football in my life.

“ Janice,
I don't have any words that could possibly comfort you, other than to say Ed was easily one of Manville's finest. I am a better person today having interacted with Ed on the football field and in the halls of MHS. Try to stay positive, Janice. When friends ask how you are, say “Fine thanks”. It' won't be easy at first, but it will be good for you and after a while you will start to believe it too. Ask me how I know.
