“ Mike Bane and family, I am deeply shocked by the passing of Betsy.
I really loved that girl she was wonderful to work with and I am glad that I had her to work with for 14 years she really made the days at Leisure Time pass quickly and made those trying days at the office that much easier. Rest in peace Betsy love you my friend!!

“ Mrs. A, Mike, Bane, Debra and Barbara, - Prayers go out to you all in this heartbreaking difficult time. Find comfort in Jesus - He will guide you through. Betsy now has this comfort, rest and peace. Her friendship is one I will never forget and always cherish - her fun-loving spirit and wonderful sense of humor will always be in my heart. I will always miss her more than words can express. So many great memories.....

“ Words cannot express the feeling of lost so many are feeling. Betsy was the best of all of us and helped us all see the positive. Even though I have not seen her in years I still refer to her as my best friend cause there isn't any one who can replace that friendship. Love and Prayers to Mom, Mike, Bane and the rest of the family.
