Emily M. Senko passed away peacefully on Friday July 31, 2015. Emily recently celebrated her 90th birthday with her loved ones and close friends. She enjoyed a very memorable birthday party held on June 26, 2015. Emily's wisdom and life lessons shared through her stories were insightful to many. Her laughter was contagious, her strength and strong willed determination were amazing! She survived on LOVE as her goal because of her strong family and religious values. She continuously fought and overcame unsurmountable odds, while maintaining a positive outlook. In her younger years, Emily loved ice skating, roller skating, bike riding, horseback riding and shopping. she lived in both Oklahoma and Alabama with her husband Joe who was serving in the Army before overseas deployment. She also lived in East Millstone, NJ. She was a resident of Manville, NJ since 1952 except for living in Schenectady, NY from 1958 to 1960, a time she loved so well. After the passing of her husband Joe, Emily later married Nicholas. He was an excellent caregiver and provider to Emily. She spoke of missing Nick often.
