“ Aunt Emma, I am SO sorry I was not able to attend your funeral services. Both of my little ones have been sick this week, and I was unable to make the drive down from Rhode Island. I really wanted to be there. I promise I will visit your grave as soon as I can. But I know that you are in heaven now, reunited with your mother and father, and your sister Anna (my wonderful grandmother who I miss every day) and your brother, Uncle Naz. There is a celebration now, with lots of love and laughter, and some good ol' chicken dancing too!

May you rest in peace.

*Love always,
Jackie, Chris, Rowan and Sofia*

“ Aunt Emma, I will always remember as kids how we came over to visit grandmom and grandpop and how you always made sure that we sat still and didn't touch anything. As I grew older and understood all that you did for them and how we kids could be a pain, I came to appreciate how hard you worked. You are now in heaven.

I love you and will miss you much.

Love, Donna
