“ Having moved out of the area (Warren County) I just heard about Tom's passing. Please accept my condolences. I spoke with Tom many times when visiting my mother who lived directly behind you in Manville. He was always concerned about her and kept an eye out for us. Again my condolences.

I will miss chatting with Tom while we rode bikes in the gym. We usually talked about our Fig trees and this and that. I never knew him as the "pizza guy" but seem to recall that he did not like tomatoes! Kind of funny. Terri Cavagnaro

I remember when I first met Tom he said something in Italian that I translated as him asking Ronnie "how many cousins do you have!?" He was always very nice to me. I always remember hearing about his trips to Vegas and thinking to myself, what else could this guy want, he's already hit the jackpot when he got my fabulous cousin Ronnie to marry him! He will be remembered with great fondness. Willie DeScala
