

George Brisebois

June 25, 1932 - July 25, 2019

George Brisebois, 87, entered into eternal life on July 25, 2019 at RWJ Somerset with his loving family by his side. He is predeceased by his mother Anna Kupcha Brisebois, father Albert Brisebois and daughter in law, Christine Hribik Brisebois. He was a lifelong resident of Manville and graduated from Bound Brook HS. He served his country in the US Navy during the Korean War, worked for John's Manville Corp. for 25 years and retired from Bristol Meyers Squibb.

George was an active member of St. Mary's Byzantine Catholic Church where he served as an altar boy and enjoyed volunteering at Bingo. He was also an active member in the Senior Citizens Club where he ran the 10/10 game. George was an avid sports fan and enjoyed watching NYY, NYG, Rutgers football and loved watching his children and grandchildren play sports as well. Playing cards, reading James Patterson novels, learning new things on his computer, being a Mr. Fix It, spending time with his family and friends were some of his favorite things.

He is survived by his wife Mary Lee (Day) Brisebois and their four children, Tracy Murray and husband Keith of Manville, Todd of Toms River, Troy of Hillsborough and Tia Boylan of Hillsborough. His loving grandchildren, Kyle, Kurt, Richie, Courtney, Alyssa and husband Ademar, Taylor, Carly, Christian and great grandchildren Madison and Beckham. He is also survived by his half brother Fred Brisebois of South Plainfield and half sisters Nancy and Carol both of Florida.
