“ Lili and George,

I don't know if you remember this but many years ago I shared the Christmas holiday with you and your relatives. It was a very warm and comforting feeling, just the way Christmas should be. It was that way because of your mother's kind and gracious manner, and the whole family's welcoming spirit. I remember playing some sort of mock secret Santa game after dinner. When it came your mother's turn to pick a present, she was so looking forward to finding out what was inside the wrapping. She was like a young child, so anxious to play the game. After opening the gift, she became very silent and very polite, and quickly ushered on the next player. I don't even remember what was inside. "What's the matter, ma?", Lili asked. "Don't you like your gift?". Everyone started laughing hysterically at her quiet, still response. With just a look, just a small gesture from her, everyone already knew the answer. Those were good times. Be sure not to lose those.

“ Dear Lili and George,

Words can't begin to express how we felt about your Mother and now her passing. She will be a guardian angel to you both. Only good memories of her when her name is mentioned. You were both so lucky to have such a wonderful Mother and everyone around her was also so fortunate to know her too. She will be missed and remembered fondly by so many of us.

Please take care. Both of you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.

Our Love,

Anna and Glenn Geschwindner

“ Dear Lili and George,

I will always remember the great times we shared as neighbors. Your mom always took care of the neighborhood children and always welcomed us into her home.

Your dad also was a loving man. I remember him taking us to McDonalds for the first time. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this sorrowful time.

May the memories of your mom fill your hearts with gladness.

Love,

Charlotte
