“ So sorry for your loss, Joe, Gloria, and Regina...I always smile when I remember the fun we had growing up on the bay near Tom's River! Our dads would rent two little boats and one motor...and Rope! We secured the boats together and would catch blowfish and crabs for hours...I think we fished most of the blow fish out of Barnegat bay!! What a feast we'd bring home! I tried calling your Dad several times throughout the years, but he didn't have an answering machine...I consulted with him in '09 when I needed to buy a car...He was very kind to help me make up my mind...He told me Hondas and Toyotas were the best...so I bought a Honda and now have a Toyota! I hope you know how lucky you are to have had him around for so long! <3 I am glad I came up to NJ for a visit to see them both and spend some time....My dad would always correct me, if I called him Daniel! He'd say, "It's Dan...not Daniel..." I'd still love to see his birth certificate! I hope you still have the poem I wrote when your Mom passed...Isn't it fascinating that both your parents passed right around the same time of year?...Much Love to all of you...Donita
