“ Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you JOSEPH. We think of you every day. We had a quiet Christmas eating turkey your favorite. You always loved to sit and look at the tree lights. That was one thing that would keep you calm. New Years eve was a very wet one. Lots of rain. Today is Jan 1 and the temps is 60 outside I am going to try and take down the outside lights. I cannot believe you have been gone for almost 7 years. It seems like only yesterday you were sitting here with us.

It is a beautiful fall day so much like the fall day you were born. I was having lots of back pain during the morning, then it got bad really fast, I called dad at work in Bridgewater he came home I went to the hospital in an Ambulance and you were born before I could even get to the delivery room. I did not know that you had problems till we got home a few weeks later and you had lots of trouble eating, they called it failure to thrive,,

We are going to have Meatloaf, Mashed Potato and cream corn, your favorite that I always made for you on your Birthday, we continue to eat this meal every year on your Birthday.
