“ We are so sorry about Joe’s death. I have many happy memories of spending Sunday afternoons playing with Joe and the kids at aunt Anna’s. I will never forget when Joe came home from the army somewhere down south. He spoke with a perfect southern drawl. Please accept our deepest sympathy.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember him as a friendly happy man. I think I have a pic from either the first family reunion, or one very early on, that was up at Uncle Frank's cabin. He was swimming in the water with the kids, and happy doing it! Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you now. Love,
