“ My grandma was a very sweet and loving women. She was always smiling and loved to dance. She was always wiggling and jiggling as soon as she heard music, no matter where she was. I remember visiting her at the rehab center. There she was, this smiling, tiny, little fragile looking women who could barely left her arms, sitting in her wheel chair. Then all of a sudden, she saw one of the bus boys pushing a cart and she immediately perks up and yells "Hey, Julio, lets dance" as she begins to raise her arms and boogie in her seat! Yes, that's my grandma!
I will truly miss her, but I know she is with the Lord dancing up a storm! Love you, Grandma ox
