

Ken Kielau

June 27, 1962 - March 10, 2024

Ken Kielau was born on June 27, 1962, at St. Peter's University Hospital, New Brunswick, NJ. He passed away on March 10, 2024, at Robert Wood Johnson Hospital after a brief illness. Ken grew up in Basking Ridge, New Jersey and was a 1981 graduate of Ridge High School. He attended DeVry Technical Institute. Ken was a self-employed landscaper.

Ken was very easy-going and was loved by his family and many friends. Ken enjoyed being with family, especially his nieces and nephew, and the children and grandchildren of his long-time significant other, Anna.

Ken enjoyed fishing and everything outdoors including hunting, boating, and playing roller and ice hockey. He was a NJ Devils fan. Ken enjoyed going to Atlantic City for dinner and comedy shows.

Ken is survived by his parents, Edward Sr. and Annette Kielau; his sister Dolores and her husband John F. Paul; his brother Eddie; his sister Donna and her husband John Hauss; his significant other Anna DeMarie; his nephew John P. Paul; his nieces Megan Hauss and Molly Hauss and Anna's children and grandchildren, Danielle, Ally, Amanda, Haley, Jace and Shiloh. Ken is predeceased by his sister-in-law Karen Paul.
