“ When I moved to Hillsborough, I first met Kevin at St. Ann's Bingo and he told me about tge Knights of Columbus. I joined and he always would encourage me, even knowing my schedule would not allow me to get to meetings and events, "to do good for others". When I heard of his passing, it really hurt me, knowing that Kevin has already touched many lives and this world on earth would not be the same. Kevin, I will continue to help people each day in your memory. Thank you and I know that you will be shining down upon me.
