“ Aunt Loretta was as much, if not more, family than a blood relative. She always called us “water cousins”. A wise cracker and a fun lady, growing up camping, bbqing and celebrations every event with the Witt family was always a barellnof laughs. I am so grateful to have known such a wonderful woman and the love and good times will live forever in my heart. Growing up Witnessing the beautiful friendship that she and Mom shared, the closeness of Dad and Uncle Jack, and the ease of the comraderie was such a joyful insight into adult hood. Though we are all grown up now, the joyful memories of my childhood will always include Aunt Loretta and the Witt family. Sending love and prayers to comfort the family. 💕
