

Margaret "Dolly" Hartzog

March 6, 1930 - January 5, 2015

Margaret "Dolly" Hartzog died January 5, 2015 surrounded by her family. Born in Manville, NJ, she also lived in Bridgewater, NJ where she raised her two sons and later in Weatherly, PA before she moved back to Manville. She graduated Bound Brook High School in 1948 where she was a cheerleader and twirler. She married Walter "Buddy" Hartzog on February 29, 1949. She worked at the First National and Somerset Trust Banks. She prided herself in being an amazing mother to her two sons, wife and friend. She was a faithful and devoted member of the North Branch Reformed Church, Bridgewater, for over 60 years. She served on the Christian Endeavor Committee and also taught Sunday School. She truly enjoyed the life that she was given. She loved the simple things like doing crosswords, puzzles, and watching tennis. She vacationed in Clearwater Beach, FL and could never soak up enough sunshine. She lived her life to the fullest and will always be remembered for her warm smile and comforting demeanor. Margaret "Dolly" is predeceased by her mother, Mary Zripko and father, Mitro Hromoho; brothers Jerry Hromoho, and Johnny Hromoho; her sisters, Helen Heger, Julie Duda, and Mary Czuprewicz; and her son Bruce Hartzog. Surviving is her husband of 65 years, Walter "Buddy" Hartzog; son Kevin Hartzog, sisters Olga Satanik, and Anne Potts; and by her five grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. Arrangements are under the direction of the Ketusky Funeral Home. A Memorial Service will be held at North Branch Reformed Church on February 7, 2015 at 10:30 AM. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations are encouraged to the North Branch Reformed Church, 203 Route 28, Bridgewater, NJ 08807.
