“Magnificent Mrs. Pinter or as Mr. Pinter called her "Mar". She was an exceptionally amazing women. I worked close with Mr. Pinter and his son Steve for many years. There was nothing like finishing a hard days work and walking back to the house, watching the sun go down, and knowing that when you got their you would be greeted by a happy ,endlessly energetic woman, endlessly optimistic, with a big smile on her face and all you could eat of what this amazing woman would prepare. She was very determined and in a positive way. She always had kind words of encouragement and wise words to help you in life. She took such good care of us all. Like Mr. Pinter used to say, "Cholie". They don't make em like my wife and your mother any more."
God Bless to the great Pinter family. Our prayers are certainly with you.

“The most generous, kind, loving woman I ever met. Her door was always open and she would welcome you in her home for a homemade meal. She never judged you, just loved you. She will be missed by many...especially her family.
