“ I have never met a mother more in love and more proud of her family than Marie. She raised five exceptional children to be the best of the best this world has to offer. May she rest in peace knowing the legacy she left behind and may her friends and family remember her with a smile and great memories. You will be missed Marie!

“ Over 20 years ago I had the great fortune of meeting two sisters in a ceramic class .Marie and Alice. The minute we met I knew Marie would be someone so special in my life. Not only did that begin a weekly lunch that lasted years and years, but she and Joe celebrated our children's weddings and many of both families milestones. She will always be loved and remembered in our hearts forever and ever.
