

Martin C. Hart

October 8, 1935 - April 24, 2016

Martin C. Hart passed away on Sunday April 24, 2016 at home in Manville, NJ. He was born in Jersey City, New Jersey the son of the late Martin Joseph and Lillian Hart. Mr. Hart was a resident of Manville, NJ for the past 43 years. He was an electrical engineer for the AT&T Corporation in New York City for many years. Mr. Hart enjoyed spending time with his family. He was a past president of the Manville Youth Athletic League (MYAL). A member of the Manville First Aid and Rescue Squad and a member of the NRA. He was also an avid train collector. He was predeceased by his wife Sandra Hart in 2009, by a brother James Matthew Hart, by two sisters Marjorie Miller and Ruth Diefenbach and by two step sisters Patricia Wolfe and Marie Greene. He is survived by his loving daughter Karen Lynn Walp and her husband Carl of Troy, New York, a brother Richard Hart of Pittstown, NJ, a sister JoAnn Dennis and her husband Thomas of Phillipsburg, NJ and by two half sisters Gloria Jean Ansback of Hampton, NJ and Carol Ann Laubach of Frenchtown, NJ. He is also survived by his two cherished grandsons Zachary T. Walp and Ryan J. Walp. Arrangements are under the direction of the Ketusky Funeral Home. Services are private.