Happy Mother's Day! You are in my thoughts every day. I thank the Lord that he put me in the arms of two wonderful parents who gave so much of themselves in raising me. Thank you for teaching me how to love and be loved in return. There are so many wonderful memories of you and Dad. I was truly blessed. My children had the honor of knowing and sharing their lives with you as well. You even made an impact on your Greatgranchildren. They still speak of you with fond memories.

You both made a tremendous impact on our lives. You will always be remembered and loved. Hugs and Kisses - Miss you.

“ Hi Mom Just wanted to say hello to all of you and tell you how much I love and miss you all. Today is Aug 7th one of the weeks we were at the shore and celebrated Colene's birthday on the outside porch. Those were the days being together every year and having a real family vacation. Your children our children. Poor Carl never got to go because that was the last year and he was born while you were down there. The next year no one wanted to go anymore. Made a lot of mistakes writing this I don't watch when I'm typing. Love you all rest in peace my beautiful family. Lots of hugs and kisses JoAnn

I miss you so much but you left me with such incredible memories of loving days and sharing so much time with you. So many times I think of how wise and strong you were. You will always inspire me to be a good wife, mother and grandmother. You were a beautiful lady to look at but also a beautiful lady to know because you were so kind and giving. Love you. “ Happy Thanksgiving everyone. I love and miss you all so very much. I miss the way we use to prepare the stuffing for the turkey the night before Thanksgiving . We use to have such a good time. I remember that you never slept well that night because you we worried about the Turkey being cold enough in the refrigerator. I miss all the good times we all use to have. Rest in peace my beautiful family. Hugs and kisses to all.

“ It will be Fall this Saturday. An entire season has gone by since you left us and went to visit Daddy, Joe and the family. I hope you and the family know how much we think of you all. The pumpkins and fall colors remind me of the upcoming Thanksgiving and all the fun we had preparing the meal the night before Thanksgiving. Last week, with the beginning of school, a thought popped into my head. It was a memory I havent thought about in a very long time. The memory was when I was in grammar school and you made a tray of goodies for the PTA and served it on a silver platter with a white dollie. How proud you were walking in to the gym to place your contribution. Another memory was you attending the Mother/Daughter GAA (Girls Athletic Association) dinner with me. Most of all I miss talking with you whether it was by picking up the phone or visiting you and Daddy. I love you...I love you too Daddy. Bernice

“ I was fortunate to have such a wonderful and loving mother. She loved her family unconditionally. She was our strength. She taught us how to be the best we could be. She was always there for us in good times as well as bad times. She not only touched our lives but made an impact with all those who were privileged to know her. Some of the best gifts she taught me was to love unconditionally, to forgive, have faith and to wake up with a smile and thank God for all the worldly gifts you have. She will be missed. She was not only my mother but my friend.
