“ Growing up one home away from the Roupenian Family left many beautiful memories of Mary R and her children Donna, Lynda & Kenny. I can't leave out their Grandparents the Esposito's also who lived upstairs from them. She was the most sweetest, loving person I ever had the pleasure of knowing. She always filled her Elm Street home with wonderful baking smells of delicious Italian cookies and lots of laughter. She made it a home where family meant everything. She was a strong woman emotionally and everyone looked up to her. You don't meet many people who leave loving imprints in your heart like she did. I will always cherish these memories. God received another beautiful angel the day she was called home and this one deserved golden wings the minute she arrived at the gates of heaven.

“ I have so many wonderful memories growing up with the Roupenian family that I can write a book. Mary Roupenian was a beautiful person who will missed by so many people, but she will live on in the memories and hearts of those who knew her and loved her. I will keep her family in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Lynda & Kenny, I love you much and even though we haven't kept in touch over the years, I think of you guys often. Love, Marilyn Fenton Saffarini
