“ Very sorry to hear of Nancy’s passing. My condolences to her family. I am Nancy’s cousin Peggy. Her father Art and my father Sheldon Kohl were brothers. Although we didn’t keep in touch, there’s one memory that for some reason I have remembered all these decades later.

I was a pre-teen but I remember once when Art & Marilou and their kids, Carmen and Nancy, my mom and dad and me spent a day one summer at Lake Hopatcong swimming and laying on the beach.

What fun we all had. I remember this time so clearly.

Nancy was always a class act. Sweet and kind. I will remember her fondly. May she Rest in Peace.
