

Rudolph John Fender

January 27, 1967 - November 25, 2024

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

DF

“ 1 file added to the album Memoirs

doris fender - December 22, 2024 at 12:43 PM

CP

“ Doris & Rose,

Praying you both find peace that brings you comfort each day, continuous courage to help you both face the days ahead and beautiful loving memories to forever hold in your hearts. Deeply sorry for your loss. God Bless.

Celia Pierce

Celia Pierce - December 18, 2024 at 12:43 AM

NG

“ Natalia Gonzalez lit a candle in memory of Rudolph John Fender

Natalia Gonzalez - December 17, 2024 at 09:50 PM

NG

I chose this color because it said "Rose" El amor de su vida. La niña de sus ojos. 💕

Natalia Gonzalez - December 17, 2024 at 09:52 PM

NG

“ On behalf of Doris and her family, we want to honor the life and legacy of Randy. He was a remarkable man who wore many hats—a devoted husband, a loving father, and an incredibly hardworking individual who always put his family first.

Beyond his accomplishments and dedication, Randy had a way of making everyday moments unforgettable. I'll never forget how he patiently taught my son to tie his shoes by the pool or how he let him ride the lawnmower with a big smile on his face. Those small but special gestures showed the depth of his character and the joy he found in helping others. He used to get so excited to see my mom, Betty, his face would light up like he had just seen an angel fallen from heaven.

Randy lived his life with integrity, kindness, and quiet strength. Whether he was working tirelessly for his family, sharing a laugh with loved ones, or lending a helping hand, he left a mark on everyone who had the honor and privilege of knowing him.

As we reflect on his life, it reminds us that we are more than our physical bodies. We are light ✨, energy ✨, and love 💕, and though our physical forms may fade, the essence of who we are continues on. This is not goodbye, because the love and lessons Randy shared will remain with us, guiding us in our own journeys.

Though he will be deeply missed, we take comfort in knowing that his legacy lives on in the hearts of his family and friends. His memory will inspire us to cherish the simple moments, work hard, and always choose kindness.

Natalia Gonzalez - December 17, 2024 at 09:45 PM

KR

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Randy.. he always had the biggest smile on his face.. always my biggest protector and the greatest neighbor in Hillsborough... I remember when his daughter was born and his biggest smile.. 🥰 ... my favorite story is when he drank all the wine in the house and then filled them with with water and then Doris went to give us a glass of wine at dinner and realize all the bottles were filled with water because Randy had drink all the wine... 🥰😭🥰 wherever you are Randy I'm sure you're putting a smile on someone's face....

Kim M Romano-Catrone - December 17, 2024 at 02:33 PM

DF

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Doris Fender - December 15, 2024 at 11:54 PM

DF

Our love may find you again

Doris Fender - December 16, 2024 at 05:05 AM

JU

“ Nothing but fond memories of Randy! He was always willing to lend a helping hand. Words fail to express my deep sorrow for you loss. May he rest in peace!

Judy Sweeney

Lake in the Clouds

Judy - December 13, 2024 at 09:35 AM

DF

Everyone has wonderful memories of Randy because he was a wonderful human being , whom we all love. Lake in the Clouds was his dream place! Dream taken away from him by an unscrupulous woman who tries to tarnish his reputation ! SHE HAS FAILED ! WE KNOW HIS HEART AND CHARACTER , HE IS A WINNER IN THE NIGHTMARE, HE IS LOVE FOR EVER AND ALIVE AMONG US. His wife

Doris Fender - December 17, 2024 at 01:38 AM

TS

“ Rest In Peace Randy . Nothing but great memories 🙏

Tom Salva - December 12, 2024 at 09:57 AM

“ Randy, I have many memories of times spent with you, Rose, and Doris. I fondly remember the many times you made chili for us, when you lit the campfire and we shared marshmallows together, and the time you took Rose, Peanut, and me on a boat ride on the lake. We all treasured those moments. I also remember you taking us out for yogurt ice cream with Rose and accompanying her surfing.

Thank you for leaving us with these wonderful memories. Life is truly about the simple things, and those moments are the most valuable.

Rest in peace, and may God grant your entire family the strength to get through this difficult time. To Rose, Doris your wife, your sister, and the rest of the family, my deepest condolences.

Laura Hurtado - December 11, 2024 at 07:43 PM

SB

“ RIP Buddy. Unfortunately life happens and you lose touch. Reading all the posts it's obvious you never changed. Always a great friend and life of the party. Typical Randy. Thank you for the memories. Pour Man's pub. Men's softball that we talked you into playing for a few years. I'll always remember the first time you hit a home run and took an hour to run the bases. We still reminisce about the old days & your name always comes up.

Forever a folk hero.

You are & will always be missed.

My deepest condolences to your family.

Steven Breheny - December 11, 2024 at 06:03 PM

DF

“ 1 file added to the album Memoirs

Doris Fender - December 11, 2024 at 02:40 PM

TC

“ I would like to celebrate the life of my dear friend Randolph Fender, a man who truly knew how to live life to the fullest, even if it sometimes involved questionable decisions and a little too much rum. I mean, who else could convince a group of friends, Ken Rello, Ken Diaz and Manny Cabelo and I to rent a house at the Jersey Shore and turn it into a summer-long party? I still remember that trip to the Caribbean like it was yesterday. We packed our bags, ready for sun, sand, and, of course, a few too many cocktails. Randolph was the ringleader, naturally, ensuring that our drinks were never empty, and our laughter never ceased. Randolph had a gift for turning ordinary moments into extraordinary memories. As Randolph would tell me at the end of a great night, as said by Yosemite Sam, “so long Sammy, I’ll see you in Miami.” His laughter and his spirit will be missed dearly. So, let’s raise a glass in his honor, and remember that life is meant to be celebrated, just as he would have wanted. Cheers to you, Randolph! You will always be our party starter and our friend.

Love Always,
Tim “Mo” Cassidy

Tim Cassidy - December 11, 2024 at 02:17 PM

JJ

“ I’ll never forget the first time I met Randy, he was carrying (2)100 bags of Cement, 1 on each shoulder out to his truck. So many great memories of training with him in the gym, especially on “leg day”!
Thank You for your friendship Randy
It was an honor. G

John Guastella Jr - December 11, 2024 at 11:09 AM

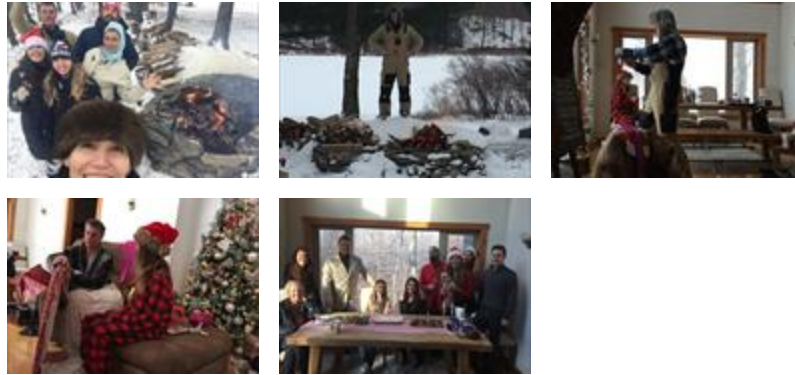

DF

He really wanted to go and spend some time with you Johnny ! Thanks for been his big brother!

Doris Fender - December 11, 2024 at 02:16 PM

AM

“ 7 files added to the tribute wall

Amanda - December 11, 2024 at 06:00 AM

AM

*Gracias por tan bellos momentos en familia que nos regalaste !
Rose y Doris las acompaño en la pena.*

Amanda - December 11, 2024 at 06:13 AM

DF

Thanks for sharing! randy love all those moments .

Doris Fender - December 11, 2024 at 02:11 PM

AC

“ We will always remember the good times and keep you in our prayers. Rest in peace.

Sending our love to you Doris and Rose.

-Amy, Frank and Frankie

Amy Catena - December 10, 2024 at 10:51 PM

DF

Thanks Amy, He loves spending all those times with you guys. He Love Frankie so much!

Doris Fender - December 11, 2024 at 02:13 PM

LC

“ You were a brave man. Thank you for all the good memories. ☐

Luana Bastidas Cerón - December 09, 2024 at 01:46 PM

DF

I will always treasure those days with him.

Doris Fender - December 10, 2024 at 03:01 PM

DF

“ "In peace, may you leave this shore. Our love, may find you again. Safe passage on your final journey until we meet again."

- His wife and daughter. ☐

Doris Fender - December 09, 2024 at 01:39 PM

OC

“ My dearest friend,

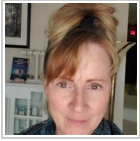

“I want to take a moment to honor and remember a truly special friend. You were always a source of kindness, laughter, and warmth to all of us. Your presence made everything brighter, and your absence leaves an emptiness that words can't describe. You touched our lives in ways we will never forget, and you will forever hold a special place in our hearts. Rest in peace, dear Randy 🙏

Olga Corso - December 09, 2024 at 10:50 AM

DF

My friend, he love you so much :) thanks for always loving him !

Doris Fender - December 10, 2024 at 03:03 PM

“ I am so sorry to hear the news. A life cut too short. May he RIP.

Tammie Starnes - December 07, 2024 at 08:06 PM

DF

For sure, too short. Thanks my friend

Doris Fender - December 10, 2024 at 03:05 PM

RS

“RIP my brother. My Deepest condolences go out to your family. I have received calls all week from people who were saddened by the news hoping it was a mistake. You will always be an inspiration and man known by all who knew you as a caring friend, loving brother, father, & son. A Man who always told you what others didn't have the courage to, a lion amongst sheep, a Warrior. You will always be greatly missed but never forgotten! Godspeed my friend.

Our Father, who art in Heaven,

In the silence of my heart, I turn to You. In the shadow of my fragility, I invoke Your grace. I am but clay in Your hands, easily broken and often lost, yet my soul thirsts for Your truth, and my spirit longs to be near You.

Forgive me, O Lord, for the times I have strayed, for the moments I chose my will over Yours, and for the times I sought fleeting pleasures of this world instead of the eternal joy of Your presence.

Strengthen me, My Father, not to flee from the trials that await me, but to face them with steadfast faith. Refine me in the fire of Your purpose, so that I may emerge as a vessel of honor, ready for every good work You have prepared for me.

When the storms of life rise, be my refuge.

When uncertainty darkens my path, let Your steadfast love be the compass that brings me back to You. Teach me to release my need for control, for Your ways are higher, and Your wisdom surpasses all my understanding.

Break the chains of earthly desires that bind me. Purify me from pride and selfish ambition. Fill me with a heart that seeks only to serve, to love, and to surrender fully to Your divine plan.

For Your glory, O Lord, and never for mine.

May Your will be done in me and through me, now and forever.

Amen.

Ron Smith - December 07, 2024 at 06:59 PM

DG

“ On behalf of myself and the extended Genovese family we would like to express our sadness and disbelief with the passing of Randy.

In a world of sometimes lackluster and nondescript individuals Randy stood out as an impressive and unforgettable person. Even the shortest conversation or encounter with Randy left one feeling engaged, entertained and invigorated with his infectious energy .

He left us far too soon but he has surely impacted all of our lives in ways that will keep his memory alive forever.

Our deepest condolences to his family and to all who had the privilege of knowing him .

*Daryl Genovese
The Genovese Family*

Daryl Genovese - December 07, 2024 at 03:46 PM

LP

“ We are sorry to hear of Randy's passing. Our deepest condolences to his family.

Leonard Prymak and family

Leonard Prymak - December 07, 2024 at 12:40 PM

DF

“ For sure, he was really loved by many people. Thanks for loving him.

*PLEASE HOLD YOUR LOVED ONES HANDS, LOOK INTO THEIR EYES WHILE TELLING THEM HOW MUCH THEY MEAN TO YOU AND THAT THEY ARE NOT ALONE IN THEIR JOURNEY. I did not do that and it was NOT FAIR TO HIM ! I want to imagine that he knows that HE was truly THE LOVE OF MY LIFE !who gave life to our wonderful treasure “our daughter ” so that I can find confer on her.
The wife.*

Doris Fender - December 06, 2024 at 12:46 PM

CB

“ Christine B lit a candle in memory of Rudolph John Fender

Christine B - December 05, 2024 at 09:12 PM

DF

“ 3 files added to the album Memoirs

Doris Fender - December 05, 2024 at 12:36 PM

CO

“ Chet Olshefski lit a candle in memory of Rudolph John Fender

Chet Olshefski - December 05, 2024 at 12:30 PM

EP

“ One time some coward hit me in the back of my head while I wasn't looking or even expecting it then as I was unconscious on the ground he continued his cowardly attack by stopping on my head. Randy upon realizing what was happening jumped in and ran the guy off probably if not saving my life definitely kept me from permanent brain damage. I forgot all about that night until recently and over the years now and then I would shoot the bull with him on the train and I never thanked him but I don't think he needed a thank you I was someone who needed help and he helped me and I think that's more about who he was and I could have been anyone. Well thank you Randy anyway . Rest easy .

Edward Pankowski - December 05, 2024 at 12:07 AM

SW

“ Where do I even begin 😞 Randy was my first love and I have so many great memories that I will cherish forever ❤️ He was always a part of our family even after we went our separate ways! He and my dad kept in touch all these years and even met up with each other with Randy's daughter (I believe a few times) to introduce her to Knobels Amusement Park in Pa that we used to bring Randy to 🤔 We've had a long history that I will never forget ❤️😞 May you rest in peace Randy 🙏 I am so heart broken and devastated over this! 😞 I'm thinking about and praying for his family everyday!

Sharmin Wittenauer - December 04, 2024 at 09:34 PM

CI

“ Cindi lit a candle in memory of Rudolph John Fender

Cindi - December 03, 2024 at 04:25 PM

CM

“ We are so sorry for this tragic loss. Randy was our Best Man, Ed's first friend when he moved to Manville, and simply a great, fun guy to be around. Our hearts break for the entire Fender family and all who knew and loved Randy. Our prayers go out to you. May your memories of Randy give you strength and as you can tell by the stories left here you can rest knowing he was special and loved by those who knew him. We'll really miss him.
Ed and Cindi Madurski

Cindi & Ed Madurski - December 03, 2024 at 04:22 PM

RE

“ Condolences to the Fender and Dallmeyer family and to all who knew Randy. I see from reading the many tributes that he had a big heart and touched many people in his life, leaving many warm and fond memories.

Rick & Cindy Edelman - December 02, 2024 at 09:22 AM

CF

“ Randy was a great guy. I remember the days of going to his bar. My condolences to his family during this most difficult time.

Christine Faulds - December 02, 2024 at 06:36 AM

SW

“ You will be truly missed, my warrior brother!

Scott West - December 01, 2024 at 07:30 PM

EM

“ My condolences to the Fender family. He was a great person.

Esther Wallace Mannion - December 01, 2024 at 05:02 PM

LH

“ Randy was one of a kind. My heart goes out to The Fender Family. So many great memories of partying at Devils Hill, wheelin, canoeing, fishing, the trip to Hollywood CA, The Poconos and his venison chili, Christmas parties and more. Never a dull moment and always a good time. He was a stellar individual with a magnetic personality. I'm going to miss that handsome smile. Rest in peace old friend til we meet again.

Lisa Humphrey - December 01, 2024 at 03:52 PM

EM

“ I have known Randy for around 40 years. Since I was a young kid, meeting him at Myron and Sharmin’s house and ever since that day he treated me like his little brother. He helped me get through some difficult times back in high school and threw the years we had some amazing times together and always had a blast having my band play at his bar. The last time i spent some quality time with him was back in February 2019, we drove up to his house in the Poconos in a snow storm the night before helping Chico move. We went and walked out on the frozen lake with a few cold ones and had one of the best conversations I have ever had about life, growing up and being a father to a young daughter. It’s a conversation and a friendship I will hold dear to my heart forever. My deepest condolences to the entire Fender family. Thoughts and prayers to you all. RIP Randy.

Eric Mangual - December 01, 2024 at 03:26 PM

JC

“ My condolences to the Fender family, Dorris and daughter Randy Rose. He was just by to see me last month as he always stopped by with a good word to lift my spirits. We had some great times that i will miss. He was the best as he had my back more than once! See you someday in heaven my brother-- Jamie.

Jamie Cap - December 01, 2024 at 01:07 PM

BD

“ Deepest condolences to the whole Fender family. I have known the family for close to 50 years now, can not believe he is gone or the pain the family is going threw.. Randy was the toughest kid in the neighborhood but he didn't flaunt it. He had a heart of gold and could make you laugh without even trying. I am one of the lucky ones with a life full of memories that I got to make with him. He will be deeply missed by so many . RIP buddy!!!

Brandon Dilks - November 30, 2024 at 07:01 PM

LF

“ GOD BLESS RANDY FENDER. sorry jeff.

Leo farrell - November 30, 2024 at 06:36 PM

CS

“ Words can never express how sorry I am to hear this sad news. Randy was such a great person inside and out, so handsome, such a great sense of humor, would make you laugh and would give anyone the shirt off his back. He will always be remembered and will be sadly missed. My deepest condolences go out to his family & friends.

Love always & forever

XOXO

Chrissy Shubiak

Chrissy Shubiak - November 30, 2024 at 03:10 PM

GW

“ We'll miss you Randy. We'll always hold on to the memories we had on Onka St when we'd have those crazy parties. You were always someone we looked up to. Till we meet again buddy.

Gary Weber - November 30, 2024 at 03:01 PM

ED

“ Randy was always so kind. He dropped by our house in Hillsborough often and ultimately bought it! He was very gracious the last time I saw him letting my daughter and I come in and see all the changes. Condolences to the Fender family on your loss.

Erica Davidson - November 30, 2024 at 01:32 PM

SW

“ Words of sympathy feel inadequate in expressing grief and sorrow for a loss so great. Sending a warm embrace and all my love to the entire Fender family during this sad time.

Steacy W - November 30, 2024 at 01:14 PM

JF

“ My brother was my super hero, I will miss him till my last breath!

Jeff fender - November 30, 2024 at 11:48 AM

JM

Jeff, I'm so sorry for your loss. Randy was loved and respected by everyone who knew him.

Jim Medeiros - December 01, 2024 at 01:25 PM

BT

Sorry for your loss Jeff. I hadn't seen Randy in decades. A few years ago at Knoebels he came up to me and said "I knew it was you, I heard your laugh and knew it". It was so good to see him and catch up for few minutes. Many great times... always an adventure.

Bill T - December 01, 2024 at 07:39 PM

RO

Luv ya my brother💚💚💚

Ronny - December 09, 2024 at 05:58 AM

JS

“ I have known Randy since we were 5 years old.
There are so many stories and memories but this phone call about 4 months ago will stay with me. We talked about our childhood and how we wouldn't change a thing and the things we did and we talked about splitting a six pack and going down the ole brook just to do more reminiscing.
Even though we went in different directions you were always just a phone call away.
I will forever miss you my friend .
God bless the family and help them heal with this loss.
Love ya my brother
Jon Jon

John SANTOstefano - November 30, 2024 at 07:31 AM

CG

“ My family and I wanted to send our most sincere condolences to your family at this difficult time. I have SO MANY memories of Randy, from childhood to working for him at Pour Mans Pub. He was the nicest guy, funny, smart and extremely handsome. He genuinely cared about people and would help anyone. He was fortunate enough to have traveled to many places and some of the stories he had were priceless. He had an awesome laugh too and he would visit my Mom every Halloween with his daughter. Randy was one of a kind and will be incredibly missed by so many people. God bless him and his family, give them strength Lord and watch over all of them. Godspeed my old friend, we all love you.

Cheryl Grenfell - November 29, 2024 at 07:50 PM

MB

Randy & Jeff would stop by our house and hang out with us for a few drinks and laughs. What I wouldn't do to have one of those moments back again. You will be greatly missed.

Mike Barr - November 30, 2024 at 03:28 PM

DF

For sure, he was really loved by many people. Thanks for loving him.

PLEASE HOLD YOUR LOVED ONES HANDS, LOOK INTO THEIR EYES WHILE TELLING THEM HOW MUCH THEY MEAN TO YOU AND THAT THEY ARE NOT ALONE IN THEIR JOURNEY. I did not do that and it was NOT FAIR TO HIM ! I want to imagine that he knows that HE was truly THE LOVE OF MY LIFE !who gave life to our wonderful treasure "our daughter " so that I can find confer on her. The wife.

Doris Fender - December 05, 2024 at 12:32 PM

JJ

I'm sorry for your loss, Jeff. He was always laughing and pushing forward through life's challenges, never giving up. I still have the piece of his butcher block countertop from when he redid his kitchen.

Jackie Johnston - December 06, 2024 at 07:42 PM