“ Sally was well loved by all. The Sharing Group met Sally when she came to Audrey's house to tell us about her years in the convent -- and the fulfillment of her life when she met and married Peter, and they had their son, Peter. I would pick Sally up when she lived in Manville and take her to our Sharing Group meetings once a month. A group of us continued our monthly visits with Sally when she moved to Parker House. We had many good conversations and lots of laughs and would always sing some songs. Sally will be missed, but the memories linger on.
