

Salvatore L. Martino

October 21, 1941 - April 28, 2024

Salvatore Louis Martino, 82, passed away peacefully on April 28, 2024 at his home in Canal Walk. He was born on October 21, 1941 in Elizabeth, NJ to Anthony and Margaret (Mazza) Martino. He grew up in Elizabeth, raised his family in Clark, NJ and retired to Somerset, NJ.

Salvatore was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He touched the lives of many with his kindness, generosity, wisdom and will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Throughout his life, Salvatore was known for his passion for sports of all kinds from high school to professional. Sal started his career working as a kid with one of the largest paper routes in NJ. He was the sole proprietor of NJB Printing and worked in the industry for over 50 years. After retirement he dedicated his time to officiating high school sports.

Sal cherished spending time with his family and friends, traveling, playing sports, fishing, betting the horses and loved playing craps. He had a wonderful sense of humor and proclaimed himself as the funniest Martino.

He is survived by his loving wife Antoinette, as well as his two sons and their families – Salvatore, Christopher and his wife Theresa, grandchildren Bryce, Sebastian, Dylan and Jeremy.

A memorial service to celebrate Sal's life will be held on Friday May 3, 2024 at St. Joseph Church, 34 Yorktown Rd, Hillsborough NJ 08844. Visitation starts at 9:30AM with the Memorial Service starting at 10:30AM.

“ We've only just returned to NJ but we can honestly say that the highlight of the past two years has been time spent with the Martino Family.
Uncle Sal will be sorely missed.

“ I met Sal working Track and Field. Sal was very warm, kind and friendly. I officiated with Sal for the last time at Hillsboro, last Spring. Sal was the the kind of person, that after meeting him once, you felt like knew him for years. I'm really glad to have had him in my track and field life. He will be missed but I know he's with Jesus. Love ya Sal. Lou D.
