“ My deepest sympathy and sorrow to Mrs Rosen, Lisa, family and friends, I went to school with Sandy and hung out with her and the rest of the gang. She always smiled and never let anything get her down. We grew apart thru the years due to marriage and moving out of town, but reconnected for my daughters wedding. I would call Sandy and she would talk in such a loving way about family and friends, regarding her trips to Florida, the Halloween/ Birthday party, etc. Sandy had so much love to give everyone she will be missed by all. You've been taken from us too soon. I know in my heart you have your Angel wings. RIP Sandy

“ Sandy loved life, found joy in the life's smallest of pleasures and, most evidently, cherished her family and friends. You only needed to be in the same room with Sandy to feel the warmth of her welcoming spirit and happy glow. We've all lost a wonderful daughter/sister/aunt, but we've gained the most beautiful of God's guardian angels. Love you, Aunt Sandy.
