Sylvia C. Rubito passed away peacefully on Wednesday, September 14, 2021 in Pittstown NJ at the age of 92. Sylvia, the daughter of Regino and Natalia Calvo, was born in Bound Brook NJ and graduated from Bound Brook High School. A resident of Manville for over 50 years in Weston, Sylvia worked at the Belle Mead General Depot in Somerville as an Assistant Personnel Officer for over 35 years. She was married to Frank R. Rubito for 55 years before his passing in 2008. She later moved to Pittstown to be closer to her son and his family.

Sylvia is survived by her son, Frank J Rubito, his wife Debbie and her granddaughters Chloe and Jordan of Annandale, her brother John Calvo of Raritan, and her many nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by her sisters Florence Grady, Lucy Kuchno, Jane Banovich and her brothers Lou Calvo, Vincent Calvo, and Joe Calvo.

Sylvia adored her granddaughters and loved spending time with them every chance she could. She enjoyed watching them participate in all of their activities over the years, and especially loved watching them on their dance team. She shared a very close bond with them, as well as with her daughter-in-law. She liked to join her son and his family on vacations going to Wildwood, sailing on cruises, and visiting Atlantic City.

Sylvia was a gracious hostess and loved to entertain. She was very close with her sisters and brothers and was there for them in time of need as they aged or became ill. She was generous and always thought of others before herself.
