“ May you find strength in all the cherished memories you have. We have so many wonderful memories of Teresa that we will treasure for ever. She was our extended family. Our three boys will never forget her potato pancakes and her zucchini bread. Teresa you taught me so much and touched our lives, your Irish soda bread will live on as I promised. I will miss calling you over for coffee and all our talks. It will never be the same walking out our back door and looking over at your back door and not seeing you and your high energy waive and smile. Our family parties will never be the same without you.....We love you and will miss you so very much.

Luke, Tina and the boys.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. Ms. Terry was so much fun to be around. She had such a youthful spirit and was always smiling.

“ To all of Terry's family and friends,

We were so thankful to know Terry. What an inspiration of youthfulness she was to us. Our son just recently asked Terry how old she was and when she said she would be 88 next week he was shocked. He couldn't believe it. Her energy knew no bounds. She was a wonderful caring woman. We pray all your cherished memories of her will help you all at this difficult time.

*Our sympathy,
Ann and Al Foeri*
