“ Aunt Theresa. You are the best aunt ever in the entire world. We had great times together. We never had even a single disagreement. You were my second Mom. I don't know what I am going to do without you. Everywhere I look, everything I see reminds me of you. I helped you and took care of you because I really loved you. I would do anything I could to help you. I am never going to forget about the great times we had. Love you to the end of time. Mary Grace

“ We only have the fondest memories of our Great Aunt Theresa. She was so kind and gentle. She would help any of us. She was a peacemaker with a beautiful smile. We loved when our family, living in New Jersey, came to Ashland, PA to visit. Great Aunt Theresa truly was great...a woman of integrity. Peggy Thompson, Debbie Kozock, and David Kane.
