columbia you really stood by tom all the way you never left his side all day every day and the last few weeks you was there 24 hours a day getting sometimes little sleep because of the pain he suffered your kids were there doing what they had to to help you and to keep their dad and grandfather feeling as good as he could possibly feel and you never heard them complaining about doing whatever it took this is what a parent hopes for and we know you are very proud of them for helping out and stepping up to the plate we send the family of Thomas Altieri the sincerest sympathy and may god bless you love Ron & Mary
