

Troy Alan Williams

July 1, 1964 - November 3, 2025

Troy Alan Williams, 61, passed away peacefully on November 3, 2025, at CareOne at Somerset Valley after a courageous ten-year battle with cancer. Throughout his illness, Troy demonstrated remarkable strength, resilience, and unwavering hope.

Born in Somerville, New Jersey, Troy was the son of the late Walter R. Williams and Kathleen Williams. He was a graduate of Somerville High School.

Early in his career, Troy worked as an automotive mechanic for Dom's Automotive and Crystal Auto Mall. In the mid-1980s, he transitioned into a new profession and went on to build a successful career as a forklift operator. Over more than 30 years, Troy was employed by Pfizer, Inc., Johnson & Johnson Inc., PepsiCo, and Reckitt Benckiser.

Troy enjoyed life's simple pleasures. He loved watching the New England Patriots, swimming, spending time at Sandy Hook Beach, and vacationing in Key West and Vermont. He also cherished time spent with friends, especially during outings to Hooters and Thirsty's Restaurant & Tavern.

In addition to his father, Troy was predeceased by his brothers, Tracy Williams and Walter "Danny" Williams, and his sister-in-law, Suzanne Williams.

He is survived by his beloved son, Travis Williams (Amelia) of Phillipsburg, NJ; his cherished granddaughter, Savannah Williams of Phillipsburg, NJ; his mother, Kathleen Williams of Somerville, NJ; and his sister, Diane Williams of Lock Haven, PA. He is also survived by his father-in-law, Walter Radomski of Manville, NJ; sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Valerie Sapirman (Jay) of Center Valley, PA; Kathy Radomski of Forked River, NJ; Christine Kershaw (Robert) of Flemington, NJ; Annette Waters (Charles) of Forked River, NJ; and Laura Findley (Glenn) of Hillsborough, NJ. Troy leaves behind many loving nieces and nephews, as well as his best friend, Alan Connors.

A private celebration of Troy's life will be held in the spring.
