“ You made me feel like a part of YOUR family, laughing at silly things, showing me your drawings and your puzzles. I made sure you had that piece of cake, wherever we were... you were and always will be in my memories and heart. Thank you lady... and yes, I always called you lady.. classic.

“ This fascinating woman lived quite a life. Her life stories were intriguing. Her smile was infectious and her wit and humor, unmatched. I was so fortunate to have spent time with her over the last couple of years. Time I will cherish and never forget. May she rest in eternal peace with her beloved siblings whom she missed dearly. I will miss her very much.
