“ Hank and I were saddened to hear of Ginny's death. She was the Matriarch of the Elks, her family and the Hillsborough Raider Booster Club. She will be missed by all who knew her. May God Bless you and your family at this very trying time. Thank heavens we still get the Elks Voice. Unfortunately since we moved we cannot get the Courier News here. Love to all Hank and Debbie Rzemieniewski

I was very saddened to here of Ginny's (Nana) passing. My girls (Ashley & Casey) were very fortunate to have her for a grandmother and I was lucky to be both her daughter-in-law & friend for 20 years. Rest in peace, dear lady. You are now up in the clouds with your Bob.

“ We were saddened to hear the news of Ginny's passing. She and her family have been wonderful next door neighbors of ours for 27 years. With her husband Bob, Ginny was the listing broker for the home we purchased. Because of the proximity of our homes, the initial purchase discussions took on the air of an interview. Somehow we passed. Ginny has always been friendly and kind to us, a rarity of sorts considering how many neighbors disagree on things. Our heartfelt condolences go out to Ginny's family, especially Kevin and Danny.
