“ Buster was my boss at the body shop while I was in HS. Spent many hours cleaning up his sportster motorcycle(which he painted it just like Peter Fonda’s bike in the movie “Easy Rider)”. Sanding cars in between And pumping gas at the Standard station If you had a muscle car that’s where you bought some “white gas”. Had a few hair raising motorcycle rides with “the Buzzard “ driving. He was a perfectionist when it came to his paint work. If one little blemish was found. Buster would start completely over. He will be greatly missed!
