“ Your great grandchildren, born on July 4th. I know you were there watching over us. My son has your name for his middle name; Ryan Walter. I hope he grows up to be as wonderful a man as you were. Maddison Lousie is my daughter and boy am I in for it. She is already as sassy as I was growing up. We love you and I miss you. I can't wait to tell my kids all about you. Always stay by our sides.

“ Well Dad

Here I am waking up to another year and your loving grace through all the cards you would send me every year wasn't there to greet me and I cried knowing it will be the very last time I'll ever hear from you

It hurts so much 😭😭😭😭 it's this reality now that it's kicked in and I know that missing your calls or your cheerful voice on the phone won't be there except in memories

Ashley made me a beautiful pillow with all of our favorite pictures together I cherished it all night crying holding it thinking of holding you

Thank you 🙏 for the memories and all the hard work you made us do for it shapes me the way I am today

Thank you for giving me the freedom to be myself - to speak up - to run beside the car Ans you cheering me on as you drove to colonial park back when it was a dirt road I still remember that day like it was yesterday

Thank you 🙏 for always believing in me and never doubting me and being there for me

Thank you Dad for the greatest man there is that I ever had in my life 📱💖🥺🙏❤️📱🥺💖🙏📱🙏❤️

I love you Daddy always until we meet in heaven

Ps I wanted to tell you I know that was you in that orange and yellow butterfly 🦋 this morning and a bird that sat there to look right at me

I had this sense of overwhelming peace come over me like you're telling me "I'm here my Michele my belle" "I love you daddy and thank you for watching over me

I can't let you go and I'm so scared I'll the sound of your voice or forget you and I'm scared I won't have anyone to guide me and show me the light like you do

“ Uncle Junior----my earliest memories of you include your penchant for finding your own directions to wherever you were heading, resulting in 50/50 success----Liberty via Kingston? Who could tell a Pollock anything, right? You were consistent with this right up through 2018, as Mary Agnes will attest! Also, no matter where the function was, if it involved your family, you made it a priority to be there---ALWAYS! I will miss our long conversations and sharing our investing strategies. One thing is sure---you definitely know the direction to heaven, and you are with the Lord and your family. Love and miss you----John Zurawski

“ Pop-Pop I have so many memories of you through out the years that I will cherish forever. I always loved looking across the room seeing you smiling, hearing you laugh and telling all your funny stories. You were one of a kind and I'm really going to miss you so much! What a blessing it is for Ava to have her own special memories of you. Our kids loved you so much! You mean so much to all of us and it's hard to express how greatly you will be missed but I love you and you will be forever in my heart.

“ Pop-Pop you were so strong and sharp that I honestly never thought this day would come. I have a lifetime filled of memories and lessons that you gave me. I am so honored to be able to call you my grandfather. Over the years the laughs I have shared with you will stay with me forever. You taught me alot of things some of which maybe you never even realized. You helped me become a better person. My kids loved you so much. Ava was always so happy when she knew you were coming to visit. I will always cherish the time I was able to have with you and until I see you again "Uncle Joe" I love you.

“ Pop Pop, This is so unreal. I have dreaded this day. You did live a very full life. You were charming, humorous, considerate, and the best grandpa anyone could ask for. I know you will watch over me always. I hope you always look down at me and smile. I hope you're there to see my future kids grow. You mean the world to me and always will. I hope Uncle Walter greeted you with a smile. I keep telling myself its your son's turn to have time with you, that we had our time. Life will always be a little different without you in it. I will cherish all of the great memories. I'm getting emotional so going to end this. I love you PopPop 🧡 Love Always and Forever, Your granddaughter Aleshea (Leeloper as you would call me)
