“ I have fond memories of a very gentle, soft spoken man who I would see every Christmas Eve of my childhood when my father and mother would pack my sister, brother and I into the car and take us visiting my great aunts, uncles and older cousins. It was the stop right before grandma and grandpa's house, and besides the smells of an Italian home at during the holidays, the untouchable sprawling nativity scene on them buffet and the unbearable anticipation of Santa's arrival that night, I remember a shy smiling man who spoke with a godfather-like whisper who called my dad "Danny." I feel unexpectedly emotional over Billy's death. Haven't seen him in almost three decades. Just sad to hear he passed. Condolences to my distant relatives and his friends who miss him most.

“ RIP Mr. Altiere. You were a good man. My father really appreciated your long time friendship to the end, and it was great having you over for Christmas/your birthday the past few years. Your were part of the Jenkoski family without doubt. On behalf of my 3 brothers, parents, wife, kids and mother-in-law, thank you for everything...including being my Dad's friend.

“ Never forget you Billy! I hope Dominic requests to assist The priest at your funeral- it would be so appropriate after all the times you were at the alter serving as Alter Boys! I never forgot those days and Fr Mcguinnes , and I know you didn't either! Rest in Peace Billy, you earned a good rest in the arms of our Lord! I know what a wonderful friend Dom has been to you, more like a brother he never had, and I know he will miss you!!!
